6. Pursuant to Circular 96/2020/TT-BTC dated November 16, 2024. The Company explains the following contents:

* The after-tax profit in the income statement for the reporting period changes by 10% or more compared to the same period of the previous year:

Target	Q2/2026	Q2/2025

The significant increase in profit after tax for this period is attributable to the Company's successful implementation of restructuring measures and business improvements - specifically:

+ The cost-of-goods-sold-to-revenue ratio is approximately 15% lower, as the company's production of finished goods this quarter exceeded that of the same period last year by 264,293 liters.

+ This quarter, certain selling expenses were reduced by over 351 million VND.

+ Meanwhile, interest income from savings deposits for this period increased by VND 758 million, as the Company allocated its idle cash to make additional deposits.
